OPENING COMMENTS
Cheryl Heying

MAR 07 2008

Good evening and welcome to the public comment meeting the ^{BAPC/BAQP} State of Utah is holding to provide our citizens the opportunity to formally have a voice on the Toquop Energy Project.

The State of Utah has no regulatory authority in this matter. We are here to record your comments verbatim via audiotape and provide them to the appropriate officials in Nevada as they complete their permitting process.

I am Cheryl Heying the Director for the Utah Division of Air Quality, within the Department of Environmental Quality. I was asked by Governor Huntsman to represent him at this meeting.

The Toquop Energy Project would be located approximately fourteen miles northwest of Mesquite, Nevada in Lincoln County. The state of Nevada, Division of Environmental Protection, Bureau of Air Pollution Control is responsible to review the project, insure it complies with all state and federal laws and rules, and issue an operating permit.

In response to concerns our citizens raised, the Utah Division of Air Quality reviewed the draft operating permit and determined it is consistent with all state and federal rules.

If you want to provide comments for the record, please sign your name on the sheet at the back of the room. You do not need to sign in unless you want to speak. Microphones are located in each aisle. Please state your name and who you represent for the record. We are allowing a two minute time period for each statement to facilitate an opportunity to hear from as many as possible.

Again, because we have no role in permitting this facility we will not be responding tonight to your comments. Your comments will be sent directly to the State of Nevada for their consideration.

We have until 8:00 p.m. tonight to take your comments. We will end this hearing at 8:00 p.m.
